THORNTONITE

This is it...

AFTER 4 YEARS WHEN ALL OF US

PUT ON OUR CAPS AND GOWNS

AND SAID GOODBYE

TO THORNTON

Peggy Heino, graduation usher, occupies her post at the Honors Day assembly.

When all of us filed into the gym to watch our classmates receive honors and awards, we suddenly realized that the end was almost here. As we were measured for caps and gowns, we felt very grown-up and important. A lot of study had preceded all these ceremonies.

In Thornton's library, there was some attempt at study, at times.

Sandra Potrafke, Charles Cullins, Larry Howell try on caps and gowns.

Miss Mary P. Thompson plays a record for music appreciation listeners.

Miss Pauline Peirce and Carol McCaslin check study hall roll.

By some stretch of the imagination you might say we organized our time like the contents of a book, but we found it hard to follow. The account here, however, is fairly logical.

Diane J. Harris weighs chemicals on a balance.

We worked in several kinds of laboratories. We studied the principles of heat and light in our physics labs, tried hard to understand such difficult units as the nature of electricity and the qualities of sound.

Some of us studied chemistry. Several times a week, we wrapped ourselves in those big, gray, shapeless chem aprons and went into the lab to revolutionize the scientific world—or to revolutionize the chem lab, anyhow.

Preparation of meals both nourishing and appetizing was offered to homemakers of tomorrow in the Home Ec department.

Boys and their dads, like Jim Kernagis and his father, at the Father-Son Stag were interested in the wood shop.

Al McLaren operates a lathe in wood shop.

In our shop courses we learned how to use a variety of new found skills and crafts. In the wood shop we fashioned practical furniture, and spent our time on many different projects during the year. In auto mechanics shop, we made use of practical knowledge to successfully complete various assignments. With latest equipment and supplementary educational facilities, we studied hard and long in shop courses. Some of us took part in the Diversified Occupations Program which allowed us to attend school and secure experience while on the job. Industrial education was an important part of school life.

The climax to our efforts came when we took our Dads on a personal tour of the shops at the Father-Son Stag, January 20.

Miss Hurley, Miss Bartman, and Miss Henderson at the library open house.

But it wasn't all work. There were numerous social events, too, all of them managed and enjoyed by students. Among the first parties was "Flapper Follies", held early in the first semester to acquaint us with some of the new girls around TTHS. After the reception line and coronation of Sara Morse as queen, we sat down to enjoy "stunts" performed by groups of freshmen, sophomores, and juniors. Then, a real treat . . . the senior style show. It was fun to see those chic outfits contrasted with costumes that were in vogue thirty years ago.

We really liked "Stompin' at the Igloo", the Junior-Senior Party. School was out, and were we glad! We were in the mood for a holiday party, so we danced for an hour or two, and then stopped for awhile to watch the entertainment. After that, we danced until midnight and had a snack to top off our perfect evening.

"Stompin' at the Igloo" was the theme of the Senior-Junior party at Christmas time. Among the dancers were Gillaine St. John, Chuck McKenna, Patt Carroll, and Trent Owings.

We had out lighter moments, too. We proudly saluted and cheered as we sang our Alma Mater and other school songs. We held our pep assemblies in the gym as well as outdoors, depending upon the weather. We participated in stunts and we presented hilarious meetings. From a mock game of football to a Mr. Sandman winging his way in the gym, we loyally cheered our teams on to victory. Teachers and students were in our skits.

We followed up the pep meetings by supporting our teams at the games.

Mary Skerry holds the pinata for Terry Abraham to try to hit at Spanish Club Christmas party.

Club meetings, council sessions, and parties were an essential part of our life at Thornton. Clubs were organized according to our needs and interests. For students of Spanish, French or German, there were El Club Espanol, Cercle Francais, and Deutsche Ecke. Through these clubs, we learned about what life was like in foreign lands, and learned to understand our neighbors around the world a little bit better.

We had hobby clubs, like the Camera Club. We had career clubs too. Medical Arts Club, better known to most of us as the MAC, conducted meetings, showed movies, and held parties during the year for girls who were interested in the field of medicine as a career.

For others, there were the Pedagogs, and the newly organized Retail Selling Club.

THORNTON

EVERY BODY

Karen Schmidt, Thorntonite reporter, interviews Dr. E. M. Hanson.

Dr. C. R. Maddox helps Marybob Ewan with the IBM operation.

Yes, Thornton needs the services and cooperation of many people in order to function with speed and ease. If Mr. Phillips had a dime for every time he's answered questions like "What's my class rating, Mr. Phillips?" or "Do you have a catalog of colleges I could borrow, Mr. Phillips?" he'd have a small fortune right there.

If we didn't have Mr. Umbaugh, we would need at least two men to do his work: one to sponsor the Boys Club and Purple X and one to serve as director of the night school and do the hundred and one other things that we rarely know about.

We'd need two deans of girls, too, if we did not have Miss Wilson to steer the Girls Club on its course and perform dozens of other duties.

Not Just the Administration

It was only at semester exam time that we became aware of how important that complicated machine down in Dr. Maddox's office could be. It was there that standardized tests were graded. We knew, rather vaguely, that finding substitutes for absent teachers was part of the job he had to do as assistant superintendent.

We saw Dr. Hanson mostly at all-school assemblies but we knew that he was around, seeing that things went off according to schedule. Reporters liked to interview him.

Mr. Carl Mendenhall explains a point to his student referee, Dick Taylor, at an intramural game. Bob Geiser is the player.

Miss Jennifer Hance took a personal interest in all her students. This time it was Angelo Panozzo.

To have a school building was not enough. We needed a little more to make that building an institution for learning. It took students, work, and proper methods, but most of all, it took the presence of teachers.

We needed a faculty to acquaint us with the real spirit of Thornton. We needed someone to turn to for help when the going got tough. We needed someone we could call upon without being unbearably formal, a someone whose prime interest lay in helping young people.

We found all these needs in our faculty at Thornton. We found teachers who were willing to give of their time and patience to explain what we wanted to know. We found these same teachers giving other time to sponsor our activities.

We found, too, that it took a working faculty to keep us in line. To combine personality with character and learning wasn't easy. Most of all, though, we found that we had learned to depend on our faculty as one friend depends on another.

School days were really quite long, but somehow they always seemed to be ending when they'd only begun just a little while ago. We would arrive in the morning, sometimes early, sometimes late, wondering why school couldn't start at eleven instead of eight-thirty. Our days included many things—perhaps a Home Ec luncheon, or working as assistant to a dean or class principal, or minor details like drinking fountains.

Mr. Fuller watches the Junior Red Cross Council, as Helen Chiatello speaks to the group.

A party wouldn't be a party without Mrs. Hodge to take care of the cloak room.

A big building like Thornton required more than a faculty and students. It needed a group of people to make its material side function as it should. We found the answer to this problem in our staff members. Made up of many people, our staff met and overcame daily disturbances in school routine. When we needed chairs for a pep assembly or concert, we called on the staff. At open houses and dances we found staff members on duty continuously. It was the staff who kept the halls and campus clean. The staff cared for our gridiron, track field, and gymnasium. Jobs big or small were tackled with the same willingness. In the cafeteria we found the staff ready to serve us. Our staff contributed many things to life at Thornton.

PAINTING CLASS—Diane Hamlin, model, Gaylene Lundmark, sketching.

CERAMICS CLASS—Diane DuBoise, Mr. Sweeney.

As freshmen we took that required course in Basic Art, looking forward to the days when Art I class met. We'd go over to the art rooms, wondering whether it would be chalk or water colors that time.

Some of us took more advanced and specialized courses. There was sketching class, where we studied proportion and line, and eventually, used one another as models.

Classes in handicrafts, drawing and painting, pottery, and jewelry displayed their work in the glass-covered showcases in the main hall. The entire Art Department combined forces to decorate the halls for Christmas, and all year long they were kept busy making dozens of publicity posters.

Eleven of them contributed the sketches for the yearbook. They were Janet Brown, Pat Cherullo, Marlene Czarniecki, Dorothy David, Pat Gibbons, Diane Hamlin, Gaylene Lundmark, Mary Beth O'Connor, Judith Porter, Larry Sons, Mary Kay Skerry.

JEWELRY CLASS—Imogene Bransuela.

Listening to the dictating machine—Vicki Sarr, Deanna Taylor.

TYPING—Damon Rockett.

In business courses we learned everything possible for use after graduation. We studied long hours before a typewriter, fervently hoping that our fingers were on the right keys, but too afraid to take a peek and see.

In shorthand classes we were taught how to translate and how to write those foreign little scribbles that saved so much time as we took notes in other classes.

In advanced typing courses we practiced even more difficult exercises and took over the responsibility of typing tests and absentee lists. In secretarial practice we used dictating machines and tests, and we mastered the many skills of business. Salesmanship and bookkeeping completed the study of business methods.

OFFICE PRACTICE—Dolores Colangelo.

WRITING A TEST—Judy Williams, Gail Van Der Griend, Don Smith, Bill Wilkes.

LIBRARY PROBLEMS—Shirley Markwell.

Thorntonites express their ideas constantly—in speech and in writing. Sometimes we talk at the wrong times, or in the wrong places—in study hall, perhaps, or in class. Other times, we don't speak when we should; for instance, when we're asked the answer to a math problem or requested our opinion on a difficult subject.

We talk in the halls and tunnel, ask and answer questions, and thrash out those troublesome math problems. We compare notes any place and any time—in the library, on the campus, or between classes. Conversation really reaches a peak in the cafeteria. Speech and debate teach better ways to express ourselves. Foreign languages and shorthand are new to us, too.

IN DEBATE CLASS—Von Allan Carlisle.

SOCIAL STUDIES DISCUSSIONS—Don Heberling, Skip Chisser.

GENERAL SCIENCE—Mr. Shouse conducts an experiment.

BIOLOGY—Joy Householder and Barbara Nolan use the microscope.

CHEMISTRY LAB—Toni Billadeau, Alan Bardwick, Lawrence Iwan, Robert Dearborn.

We had some serious moments in our classes, too, in the realm of science and scientific know-how. We started our basic study of all science in General Science, where we learned in general terms the most apparent facts about science. We watched experiments and demonstrations with awe as we tried to understand what they were all about. As we studied various units in the textbook, we related everyday occurrences with scientific fact.

We learned more about atoms, molecules, and nature in our study of Chemistry. During the week we correlated lectures and labs to do some scientific thinking. When we left the Periodic Chart and the equations and formulas, we felt like brand-new intellects.

CLEAN-UP TIME—Mary Ann Molnar, Jeannine Hoekstra, Betty Johnson, Annette Grindel, Raynette Wieck.

SEWING—Wilma Stooksbury.

Future homemakers finish their basic training in the Home Economics Department. One of the many things in which they receive experience is correct procedure in making clothing. They learn to cut out garments correctly, fit them exactly, baste, stitch, and finish.

A foods class includes instruction in combining ingredients, cooking, and serving tasty meals. Since the girls eat their daily assignments, they do the best work they can.

A Homemaking Department must have modern equipment to be of real value to its students. Ours is superior in this category. We have sewing rooms equipped with convenient tables and storage space, modern sewing machines, and approved lighting. We have well-equipped kitchens with new sinks, cabinets, and stoves. There's even a food freezer for long-range assignments. Luncheons, style shows, and teas make constant use of this fine equipment.

DRESS CUTTING—Barbara Doszak, Janice Bonnema.

FOOD FREEZING—Peggy Grugett, Betty Bremner.

Madelyn Palmer served as study hall checker.

We needed other things to make our stay at Thornton complete besides faculty, administrators, and staff. It took volunteers in many endeavors to make Thornton function properly. There were the checkers in study hall to take roll. They helped teachers signing re-entrance permits, and keeping order in the room.

Volunteers were needed in other fields too. Girls helped the nurses by acting as assistants. Keeping files and records and acting as receptionists, members of the Medical Arts Club used their experience in a practical way.

Volunteers as office assistants, librarians, lost and found clerks, and book store clerks helped Thornton run more smoothly. Student volunteers served in the English Rental Library to check in books and deliver them to English teachers.

Joy Householder, nurses assistant, was a guinea pig for Mrs. Salkeld and the magnifying glass.

Donna Doll volunteered as patient when Miss Lieb demonstrated home care of the sick. Looking on are Louise Llorens, Marie Ortmueller, Judy Robbins, Vivian Neal, Deanna Steele.

Touch football was a favorite game with the boys.

Marvin Van Vlymen put on a weight-lifting demonstration while John Henry watched.

Physical education is an important part of every Thorntonite's program. All students are required to take gym for four years, and the programs are quite extensive.

Freshman girls gym includes games and tumbling, hygiene, and dancing. During the next two years, girls are given a choice of sports, modern dancing, or swimming. Senior girls study first aid, plan parties, and play games such as ping-pong, badminton, and shuffleboard.

Boys physical education includes hygiene, team sports, tumbling, wrestling, swimming, and first aid for underclassmen and juniors, and individual sports such as badminton and shuffleboard for seniors. The whole program aims for strong, healthy students.

Experts in modern dance class demonstrated their art. Seated: Kathy Baker, Margie Zylstra. Standing: Joy Spartin, Elaine Allison.

DAD-DAUGHTER DINNER—Leanne De Line, Mr. De Line.

In the Girls Club, certain activities have become traditional.

There is the Freshman Stand-Up, one of the first parties in the fall. Newcomers to Thornton go through the hand-shaking ceremony to meet club members. So many come to the party, there's no room to sit down so they call it the Stand-Up.

On Scholarship Day, girls with scholastic records of straight A are honored. Those with several semesters of A rate special honors.

Daughters invite their dads to a dinner party and persuade some of them to help in the entertainment afterwards.

The candle-lighting ceremony on Loyalty Day is a renewal of the pledge of loyalty to the Girls Club, its founder, and its activities.

Thorntonites like to honor their parents and teachers. Five times each year, banquets and parties are given in their honor. A "Banquet of Snow" was held in mid-December for daughters and dads. Fathers were honored in January, at a Father-Son Stag, sponsored by the Boys Club. About eight o'clock on a Saturday evening, pops and sons filed into the auditorium to hear Mr. Edward McFaul. Boys dated their moms in March at the annual Mother-Son banquet. Girls treated their mothers to the annual Mother-Daughter banquet in May. Girls Club invited favorite faculty members to a tea one February afternoon.

Shuffleboard courts were in the balcony.

One of the best attended parties of the year was a KIP gym jam—a good name for that kind of affair.

Volleyball, ping pong, shuffleboard, swimming, dancing, and movies were on the list of activities. When you got tired, you could just sit and watch.

Ping pong tables had both players and kibitzers.

Main floor bleachers were good places to sit.

Four volleyball courts were busy the whole evening.

THREE HOOFERS FROM THE CHORUS LINE—
Gerrie Nielsen, Maureen O'Connor, Joan Rossing.

What a time we had at the Homecoming Dance! It really did pour that night! We had to run from our cars to the new gym, but once inside, it was heavenly. We danced for a while, then watched the entertainment. Harvey Hoofers did a number, there was a vocalist or two, a modern dance, and finally the long-awaited moment—crowning of the Homecoming King and Queen.

Somebody announced that Lois Cohenour and Dick Bennot were the royal couple, and then last year's king and queen crowned them. After we danced and talked until twelve, we left for a midnight snack. It was still pouring, but we didn't care.

Such a wonderful homecoming weekend! There was the swell pep assembly Friday on the football field. Then the game where we fractured Danville, 35-0. Saturday night's dance had "Holiday Rhythm" as its theme and the crowning of the queen and king as its highlight. To top it off, the rain became a flood and we had two days off school.

Two dates from Bloom found it a wet evening.

The gym floor was busy at Purple X open houses after the games.

Thorntonite office was a madhouse on Wednesday mornings—Carol Kern, Kathy Paasch, Barbara Logsdon, Gerry Palumbo, Carol Sutor, Maureen O'Connor.

The dance floor, after a game, was crowded with happy Thorntonites because the Wildcats had won again.

Girls might complain that too few boys had the urge to dance, but everyone seemed to have a good time. Even the faculty, some of whom had to be high-pressured into acting as chaperones, enjoyed the party in spite of themselves.

Little Kenny Liehr showed up several mornings with his mother when she came to do book work for the magazine drive. He was fascinated by the big camera and the lights which accompanied picture-taking for the yearbook. Students liked it too, because they got out of class.

Students in the foreign language department thought up some amusing stunts for initiation while high salesmen for the magazine drive gloated over their prizes.

Thornton's cheerleaders, as usual, lent much to the revival of school spirit through the entire year. Never a pep assembly or game went by without the presence of those girls who stimulated yells and cheers from the crowd. These girls devoted much of their extra-curricular time to learning and practicing cheers used at games.

Not to be outdistanced by anyone, Thornton's band had a busy year. In addition to conducting the annual Band-Tag Day and the Band Concert, the band also played at most events. New uniforms gave the group a boost for their concert.

TOOTLING—Al Pinger.

Honors Day was an all-school affair with parents of honor students there too.

COMMENCEMENT—
Peggy Heino, Lois Cohenour,
Dr. Hanson, Dave Bickley.

Year's end is a time of tradition. Ordinarily, on Flag Day, the entire student body and faculty crowd around the flagpole out on the campus, with graduates in the center, wearing robes and mortarboards. The senior class president turns over our American flag to the custody of next year's senior class. As the flag is hoisted to full-mast, everyone repeats the pledge of allegiance. Or if the weather is rainy, the affair is in the gym.

On Honors Day, seniors march into the gym in caps and gowns. After athletic awards, activity awards, and many others, National Honor Society members and honor roll students are announced to an eager crowd. At Commencement, as the choir sings "The Halls of Ivy", we realize this is goodby.

FLAG DAY—Colleen Dardis,
Wayne Kruger.

AUTOGRAPHS—Sharon Kelly, Elaine Degenhart, Lynne Harris.

After going through the courses in the year at Thornton, it took the appearance of a yearbook to bring back memories forgotten. We looked at activities of ourselves and class-mates. As we turned the pages, we saw pictures of our clubs, organizations, and student friends. The faculty and administration, staff and students, everyone at Thornton was represented in some way. Seniors thrilled at being in the "big picture" section, while juniors thought they were finally getting somewhere. As we picked up our Thorntonites at the Boys Club Office, we realized that all the work and play we had done here at Thornton was symbolized between the pages of a yearbook we could truly call "ours".

Yearbook distribution finds Mr. Umbaugh busier than ever.

Thornton's four major organizations are known as the Big Four—Girls Club, Boys Club, KIP, and PX. These groups are the governing bodies of TTHS.

PX, meaning Purple X, is an elected group of students who sponsor dances after football and basketball games. Leadership in school affairs is the qualification for membership; service to the school is the aim of the group. Their name comes from purple, one of the school colors, and X, the unlimited service which the committee can perform.

The Girls Club board is an elected group of girls. It consists of six seniors, five juniors, four sophomores, and three freshmen. The club secretary and treasurer must come from this group.

Thornton's Boys Club is the one club that all Thornton boys can belong to. Upon joining the organization, each boy receives a membership pin and card.

The club sponsors many activities through the year. Some of these are the Father-Son Stag, Boys and Girls Club Play, Mother-Son Banquet, and Boys Club Open House.

The Boys Club Board is the governing body of the club. It consists of one freshman, two sophomores, three juniors, and four seniors. They elect their officers who are president, first vice-president, second vice-president, secretary, and treasurer. These boys help Mr. O. F. Umbaugh, the dean, in every way possible.

KIP, a name derived from the school motto, "Knowledge Is Power," is the student council of TTHS. The board is elected by the KIP members and is responsible for all activities and policies of the club.

Service

Hall Guard Organization is one of the bigger projects of the Boys Club but has its own officers.

A student directory, listing names, phone numbers, and addresses of Thornton students was published again this year by the KIP.

Thornton students were selected from the Medical Arts Club to assist the nurse. These girls used free periods in the nurses' office to help with filing health records, checking thermometers, and running errands.

Library assistants are in great part responsible for the smooth operation of the high school library. They check books in and out and assist in clerical work.

KIP Forum

Every Thorntonite automatically becomes a member of KIP, the student council, upon entering high school. The KIP forum, a representative group in the council, is composed of a forum member from each homeroom. Elections are held in the fall of the year. The forum member's duty is to attend the regular meetings, held once a month, and to report to his homeroom the discussions which take place. He also carries back to forum meetings the suggestions made by homeroom members.

This year the forum, under the guidance of Tim Abraham, co-operated in planning pep assemblies to promote school spirit and sportsmanship, in managing the Lost and Found department, and in sponsoring the annual Homecoming. The forum elected chairmen for the gym jams everyone enjoyed so much.

LOST AND FOUND—Barbara Boudreau, Nancy Karsten.

Lost & Found

Lost and Found became the home of all good little misplaced books and mittens. The Lost and Found service is named by some as the KIP's most appreciated project. It is located in the KIP office, 107A. There many a textbook and pair of mittens the owner thought were gone forever are waiting to be claimed. Barbara Boudreau, manager of "Lost and Found" this year, urged owners to claim their property.

One of Thornton's most hard working organizations is the Campus Patrol and Safety Squad. Their job is to keep the campus free of paper and refuse during lunch periods. They see that safety rules are enforced to combat reckless driving. It is their duty to do away with smoking on the campus.

Although the group is a Boys Club project and works to keep the building and campus looking neat, they need and expect co-operation from the entire student body.

Life at Thornton wasn't all work and no play. During the year, students had a chance to work on Junior Red Cross projects. The Christmas stockings and the party-in-a-box were fun and brought some cheer to the people who received the things Thorntonites had made. The whole school was reminded of civil defense through the efforts of the JRC. Thornton was the only school in the Chicago area which had a system of homeroom representatives.

Service Groups

Anytime someone needs a pencil or some paper, or even a slide rule or any of those all-important rental fee stubs, he knows where to go—to the bookstore, naturally. Here on the second floor, by the girls small gym and room 218, the student clerks, under the direction of Mr. Peterson, sell any supplies that students may need during the school term.

Harvey Hoofers were always on hand to add a gay bit to the entertainment at any of the social events around TTHS. They made us laugh with their routine to the "Chocolate Shake" at the Homecoming dance last fall.

The projection squad is one of the busiest of all the Thornton service organizations. It is their job to see that projection equipment is in the right place at the right time and that there is an operator to show the movie to the class. Since September, they have shown more than 1,500 films to all of the eleven different departments.

Magazine Drive

Again this year, the magazine drive, sponsored by the Girls Club, was financially successful both for the club and for the prize winners.

Medical Arts Club, known to all as MAC, is for girls interested in a medical career. MAC is sponsored by Miss Dorothy Lieb, school nurse. Members of the club, during their free periods, learn a lot about the job and about human nature, from assisting the two nurses.

MAGAZINE DRIVE CHAIRMEN—Nancy Karsten, Sandy Seeder, representatives; Joan Canney, salesman; Karen Adler, Marilyn Sudds, chairmen.

Service Project Committees

Through a sheet of rain many Thorntonites and alumni came in for the big Homecoming dance. There was a lot of excitement and tension in the huge crowd. Crowning of the Homecoming king and queen was the highlight of the evening. The big Homecoming game had been a victory for Thornton and there was a brand new king and queen. The theme was "Holiday Rhythm". Everybody had it on this big, exciting night. Rain may have dampened the girls' curls, the boys' ties, but nothing had dampened their spirits.

Freshmen who came had a new kind of fun. Seniors had a big night to add to their page of pleasant memories.

Girls Club committees are always busy with welfare groups, refreshment crew at football games, entertainment, tickets for sale, and refreshments for dances.

There are plenty of jobs for girls looking for things to do and fun to have. Activity points, Junior Service Awards, Freshman Stand-Up, marshals, group meetings, Oak Forest Welfare are just a few of Girls Club activities.

GIRLS CLUB CHAIRMEN—Row 1: Marilyn Sudds, magazine drive; Karen Adler, magazine drive; Judy Karsten, activity points. Row 2: Sandra Skye, junior service awards; Kathy Paasch, group meetings; Judy Jensen, refreshment crew; Elaine Degenhart, junior service award; Peggy Heino, refreshment crew.

MAY QUEEN COURT—Center: Colleen Dardis, May Queen. Row 1: Sandra Jehu, Lois Cohenour, Sharon Davis (Maid of Honor), Jeanne Thies, Nadine Ehlert, Sara Morse, Caryl Heberling, Patt Carroll (Maid of Honor). Row 2: Joy Walker, Diane Dunlap, Frances Novak, Ilene Pajak.

Girls in the junior class had a hard time choosing the traditional May Queen Court to be presented at the Mother-Daughter Banquet. Last year thirteen girls instead of the usual twelve were selected because of ties in voting. Colleen Dardis was named queen and, because of another tie, Sharon Davis and Patt Carroll were chosen the maids of honor.

The queen and the maid of honor are selected by all of Thornton's girls, but the court is chosen by the girls of the junior class.

May Queen, Bus Guards

In the Girls Club there are many committees on which all members work. In this way the girls learn by doing.

“Flapper Follies,” was the theme of the traditional Freshman Stand-Up. It is at this party that freshman girls begin to feel they are a real part of Thornton. Oak Forest and the Home for Incurables are visited by the girls working on welfare. Big Sisters visit homerooms regularly to talk over problems with freshman and sophomore girls. The Marshals take over at assemblies, seating girls quickly and maintaining order.

Pedagoggs, Chairmen

Among the many school sponsored clubs is Pedagoggs. It is a small, enthusiastic group affiliated with Future Teachers of America. They have TTHS faculty and other teachers as guest speakers at their meetings and discuss aspects of teaching, from kindergarten to college.

Since Thornton Township includes such a large area, buses are needed for transportation for students from neighboring towns. The Boys Club provides bus guards to maintain order and to protect students on the buses to and from school. Sometimes students give the bus guards a hard time, but the guards keep right at their job.

PEDAGOGGS—Row 1: Janet Williams, librarian; Carol Vandenberg, historian; Marilynn Ferkan, president; Linda Freeman, vice-president; Mabry Hebert, treasurer; Gerrie Palumbo, secretary.

Hall Guards, Thornton's

As we look through the picture frame, we see a very important and familiar scene—hallguards stationed at various posts along the halls. Their duties are to check all students in the corridors, during class time to see whether they have passes, to guide visitors, and to give directions to lost students, especially to the freshmen, during the first few weeks of school. A freshman is occasionally given the wrong direction, but what is life without a few laughs? All joking aside, Thornton has a hall guard organization that students and faculty members are proud of and will remember for a long time.

Student Policemen

One of the best known of the boys service groups is the Hall Guard Organization, sponsored by the Boys Club. Boys who make up this organization are the hall guards, campus patrol, safety guard, and bus guards.

The campus patrol is stationed outdoors to see that students keep the grounds neat and clean. They also watch for reckless drivers racing around the building during lunch periods. The safety squad has the job of checking the parking lots.

Newspaper

Robert Harmon, feature editor; Kathy Paasch, news editor; Valerie Tellis, news editor; Barbara Logsdon, feature editor.

September, 1954, saw a new staff working hard to get out the first issue of the weekly Thorntonite. They learned how to write feature stories and news stories, how to compute heads and estimate column inches.

It was hectic, this business of reporting, but profitable and enjoyable, too. While learning essentials of journalism and how to edit a newspaper, they developed a sense of responsibility and of tact.

Before they knew it, the final issue of the paper was off the press and the yearbooks were ready to be distributed.

Yearbook

Roger Van Vuren and Keith Turkington, sports writers.

Karen Schmidt, Carroll Kern, yearbook pictures; Norma Kowalk, Arlene Walker, reporters.

Joanne Ihfe, Gerrie Palumbo, circulation managers; Joanne Calo, reporter; Bob Hogancamp, Bunny Culbertson, advertising managers.

Publishing a yearbook as well as a newspaper kept the staff in a hustle. Carroll Kern and Karen Schmidt typed the picture identifications. Wally Baggs and his sport writers made statistics accurate and interesting.

Kathy Paasch and Bob Harmon wrote copy for the opening section. Bunny Culbertson and Bob Hogancamp managed the advertising campaign. Everyone, reporters and editors alike, sold ads and wrote copy.

From the Art Department eleven students made drawings for the opening section. They were Janet Brown, Pat Cherullo, Marlene Czarniecki, Dorothy David, Pat Gibbons, Diane Hamlin, Gaylene Lundmark, Mary Beth O'Connor, Judy Porter, Larry Sons, and Mary Skerry.

UN CLUB OFFICERS—Row 1: Barbara Bukowski, vice-president; Marguerite Verley, president. Row 2: John Henry, treasurer; Dolores Bronecke, secretary.

UN, JV Band

United Nations Club is an organization where students meet to discuss current events and to exchange political ideas and views. During the year UN Club had a few distinguished visitors at the club meetings to give lectures on interesting subjects concerning world problems, wants, and needs. Participating in a contest sponsored annually by the American Association for the United Nations was one of the club activities. The contest was in the form of a written exam on current events.

Thornton's Junior Varsity Band is a group which prepares musicians for a later entrance into the Concert Band. The group is made up mostly of freshman students who want to take a part in Thornton's music activities.

Distributors, Honor Society

New members of National Honor Society are announced on Honors Day. Membership is based on scholarship, service, character, and leadership. The number of new members must not exceed fifteen per cent of the senior class nor five per cent of the junior class enrollment. As a money-making project to pay for NHS pins, the group sold purple and white pencils with the 1954-55 basketball schedule printed on them. Everybody wanted to get one of those pencils.

Wednesday mornings would find the Thorntonite office busy as a beehive. Every Wednesday some seventy newspaper distributors would get interviews, pick up their distribution lists, count papers, and, when the bell rang, be on their way to deliver the bundles to their respective rooms.

French, German, Spanish

SPANISH CLUB

Spanish Club activities began rolling as nominees for office presented their skits or election campaign speeches at one of the early meetings. Initiation consisted of trips through the Chamber of Horrors, followed by the performing of various amusing stunts. At its Christmas party, the club celebrated in typical Mexican fashion by breaking the pinata, which showered candy for everyone there.

One of the big celebrations was the Spanish Club carnival, where there were booths, games, prizes, music, dancing, and fun for all.

GERMAN CLUB

Games, speeches, stunts, and skits presented in German were some of the features of a typical Die Deutsche Ecke meeting. Some of the "specials" were color slides of Europe, and German folk dancing with an instructor from Germany. These monthly meetings helped students from the different classes to become acquainted, and gave everyone an opportunity to converse and to sing in German.

For initiation and folk dancing, members wore German folk costumes. Each meeting was a gay occasion with music and refreshments.

The club sponsored correspondence between its members and students of English in Germany, Austria, and Switzerland. Every letter was written in both German and English.

GERMAN CLUB—Row 1: Charles Duke, president; Bonnie Johnson, secretary; Leola Poppel, treasurer. Row 2: Lawrence Iwan, 1st vice-president; Howard Doster, 2nd vice-president.

For the second meeting of French Club, members of second and third year classes prepared an initiation program. At their "Exhibition of Paris," initiates helped build the Eiffel Tower, dug up the body of an unknown soldier, took a walk along les Champs Elysees, and were even subject to threats of execution by the guillotine. At the end, initiates took the club pledge.

La Guillotine—Joan Baldwin (victim), Bill Donahue (executioner).

TTHS Language Clubs

FRENCH CLUB

Variety show, the Mardi Gras, and a sidewalk cafe with floor show were big events for French Club. The group sponsored a map of France contest and a notebook contest, with prizes being given for the winning entries. In the spring the annual French contest was held.

Students wrote skits, which were produced in French. Sometimes they dramatized what they were studying, and on other occasions, put on puppet shows.

Hi-C's, a name which stands for Hi-Crusaders, held weekly meetings on Thursdays. Devotional talks and singing were a big part of club activity.

Retail Selling Club was organized this year. Courtesy in salesmanship was the main object.

Debate tripled its enrollment of 1953-54. The team worked hard all year doing a good job.

Talks, Pictures, and Plays

Camera Club members met to discuss and share their interests in photography. Problems were considered, and dark room development methods were taught.

Footlighters, under the direction of Mr. E. C. Ohlert, is Thornton's student drama club. Officers and managers had the important job of working together to make productions a success. Members learned to practice and develop what acting ability they had and planned the stage settings for the plays which they presented once a month.

CAMERA CLUB—Bob Harmon, vice-president; Tom Pearson, secretary-treasurer; Bob Hogancamp, president.

ORCHESTRA OFFICERS—Row 1: John Tripp, president. Row 2: Judy Williams, secretary; Ron Beck, treasurer; Carol Sutor, vice-president.

An important group at Thornton is the Band and Orchestra Parents Association. Its main purpose is to assist the two music groups in every way possible. The association secures money for necessary equipment, uniforms, and concert tours by sponsoring such projects as dances and tag days.

The TTHS orchestra plays a very large part in school activities. Some events at which the orchestra performed were the Optimist Club Forum, the Christmas Concert, and all of the plays. It played at the Junior-College commencement. Very often members of Thornton's orchestra were able to make the Chicago Youth Orchestra.

Near the close of the school year the band and orchestra held their annual picnic at which awards were given to students.

KEYDETS—Row 1: Sue Chilton, Judy Beck, Kay Hopman, Judi Eix, Joyce Walter. Row 2: Sandy Gioconda, Ann Lave, Kathy Sallay, Nancy Blake, Judy Lyon.

Thornton Musicians

One of the special honors here at Thornton is to be chosen to the Madrigal Singers. Thirteen members, who were selected from Mixed Chorus by tryouts, make up one of Thornton's top choral groups. Some of the programs in which the group participated were the Christmas Concert and the Spring Festival. Performances outside of school were also given—such as hospital appearances.

The Keydets, which consists of all girls, is also a top choral group at Thornton. All members are chosen from the Girls Choir. The group performs at many Girls Club assemblies and some events outside of school. Other programs in which the Keydets participated, under the direction of Miss Mary Thompson, were the Spring Festival and the Christmas Concert.

Glee Clubs, Mixed Chorus —

Music plays an important part in Thornton activities as the large number of singers indicates. Mixed Chorus, directed by Mr. Walter Armbruster, and Girls Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Mary P. Thompson, displayed their talents to large crowds at both the Christmas Concert and the Spring Concert. These organizations also made various other appearances out of school.

Big TTHS Choral Groups

Throughout the year, many were thrilled by the sweet voices and harmony of the Girls Choir and the Freshman Girls Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Thompson.

Mr. Armbruster prodded the boys into making beautiful music upon occasions.

When Thorntonites had an opportunity to take part in the All-State Music Activity at the University of Illinois, they were enthusiastic.

The string trio played for both school and community activities.

ALL-STATE MUSIC ACTIVITY— Lois Holtgren, Sandra Skye, John Tripp, Judy Tysse, Elaine Degenhart, Quin Morrison.

Orchestra Groups

Every other year the band and orchestra go on tour. In April of this year they went to Washington, D.C. The trip lasted all of four days.

Besides musical activities, their schedule included a guided tour of the city. Some of the places they visited were Mt. Vernon, the White House, and the Congressional Library.

Concert, Festival

The traditional processional by members of the Mixed Chorus, singing a medley of Christmas carols and carrying lighted candles, once again opened the annual Christmas Concert. All of the other choral groups and orchestra participated in the program too, to play and sing all types of Christmas music.

The concert was presented once on Sunday for the public and again on the following day for the student body at a special assembly.

Spring is the time for singing. That is what all the music groups at Thornton do at the annual Spring Festival. There were various selections by the Freshman Girls Glee Club, Girls Glee Club, Girls Choir, Boys Glee Club, Mixed Chorus, and both the band and orchestra.

One of the main features of the festival was a piano solo played by the winner of a contest to determine just who that soloist would be.

Varsity Band

The band has been a part of Thornton since 1916. And a very special part too, for what would it be like without music at annual events? The band plays at basketball games, football games, and pep assemblies. Some of the other events that the band takes part in are the Spring Festival and the Annual Band Concert.

PERCUSSION—Row 1: Martin Houk, Donna Schindler, Alice Roney, Bob Lagestee. Row 2: Janet Zander, Frank Beal.

A very special event happened at Thornton this year. For the first time in about twenty-five years new uniforms for the band were purchased.

The style of the new uniforms is similar to that of the United States Air Force. Besides the basic uniform, the outfits also include emblems, hats, citation cords, and belts.

Members of the band were seen for the first time in their new uniforms at the Band Concert on February 27.

Sandra Potrafke—Abby Brewster; Peggy Heino—Martha Brewster; Charles Duke—Mr. Witherspoon.

“Arsenic and Old Lace”

As the Brewster spinsters engaged in their interesting hobby of serving poisoned wine to elderly gentlemen callers, and had their brother Teddy bury the bodies in the Panama Canal (actually the cellar), the riotous comedy "Arsenic and Old Lace" put on by the Boys and Girls Club, November 19 and 20, became a tremendous success.

Robert Dearborn—Reverend Harper; John Peiguss—Lt. Rooney; Marshall Fisher—Mr. Gibbs; Carol Shannon—Abby Brewster.

The Cast

The splendid performance turned in by all those who participated in "Arsenic and Old Lace" was the result of many hours spent at rehearsals. Memorizing, acting, and hard work were all just part of the fun in making the play a hit.

Those who made up the cast were Sandra Potrafke, Carolyn Shannon, Bob Dearborn, Byron Kutscher, Don Krause, Penny DeMack, Peggy Heino, Carol Sutor, Gerry Tubacki, Jim Heffernan, Marshall Fisher, Don Smith, John Tripp, Jim Ertle, John Peiguss, and Charles Duke.

Mr. E. C. Ohlert, dramatic coach, gave all the help needed for their success.

Jim Ertle—Officer O'Hara; Byron Kutscher—Teddy Brewster; John Tripp—Dr. Einstein.

Don Krause—Officer Brophy; Don Smith—Jonathan Brewster; Penny De Mack—Officer Klein.

Carol Sutor—Elaine Harper; Jim Heffernan—Mortimer Brewster; Gerry Tubacki—Elaine Harper.

"WHEN GIRLS ASK BOYS FOR DATES"—Tom Williams, Mary Roach, Janet Nolting, Penny DeMack, Sandra Gioconda.

One of Thornton's most active clubs was Footlighters. Students developed their acting ability by giving plays for the entire student body after school.

One such play was "The Haunted Castle." As each set progressed, the audience realized that Johnny, the hero, was the victim of a foul plot that would deprive him of his inheritance. But in the end, everything turned out fine, of course.

Another play given by Footlighters was "When Girls Ask Boys for Dates." In this comedy girls did the asking and the entire procedure was turned around. Not only did they ask the boys for dates, but paid the bills, and got the family car as well. Some amusing situations developed.

On and Off Stage

Then there was the last minute rush with scenery that defied the laws of gravity and costumes that defied the laws of style. ("But it has no waistline!") During all the confusion, Mr. Ohlert, sponsor of the Footlighters, managed to stay calm. And the whole school felt the effects of his direction in "Angel Child" and "The Haunted Castle." Memorizing of lines was important, but other things were just as much so—like lighting, scenery construction, makeup, and management. There was fun at rehearsals when an actor said a line backwards and came out with something amusing. By curtain time, everyone was sure that he could not act, but at the end of the play he knew that he'd do it again.

THIS IS IT . . . OUR

We surely didn't have any trouble finding work at school, but play was never far from any of us. There were always several sports to take part in, and fine teams to cheer for.

Cheerleaders, Lettermen

LETTERMEN'S CLUB—Row 1: Dick Bennot, president; Ben Crisler, secretary; Laddie DeVore, sergeant-at-arms; Don Paarlberg, second vice-president. Row 2: Elliott Marovich, treasurer; Larry Taylor, first vice-president; Bob Wargin, sergeant-at-arms.

Ushers and Twirlers

Cheering Thornton's teams on to victory and waking up school spirit were the big jobs of the cheerleaders, who were equal to the task. Yelling by the junior varsity cheerleaders helped the sophomores in their basketball and football contests.

Being elected to the Lettermen's Club was a major honor for all the club members. Projects of the club were the selling of football programs and the selling of refreshments at basketball games.

Leading the band in football formations and performing half-time feats, the twirler corps thrilled the spectators.

At home games the ushers kept the crowds in orderly form and gave minor services for the comfort of the fans. They had troubles, but did their jobs.

Bob Godwin (23) gets ready to tackle Blue Island's Stromomli as the Wildcats crept by the Cardinals in a conference test, 7-6. Immediately behind Godwin is Benny Crisler.

Outrunning two Hammond Bishop Noll defenders is Paul Pendleton (66) as the sophs lost to Noll, 33-13. Pendleton scored both touchdowns, one coming on a 65 yard sprint.

At Thornton

Thornton's Jan Zapchenk (28) appears undecided as big George Harrop (40) drives in for the block that will send the big fullback on his way to another long run, against East Rockford. East defeated Thornton 7-6, the Cat's only loss during the season.

Dick Bennot, Thornton's all-state guard, has just intercepted a pass in the homecoming game and is being brought down from behind. In the 35-0 whipping of Danville, Bennot kicked five extra points. Jerry Lenke (55), Herman Ayres (30), and Darnell Sanford (24) are unable to block the Danville tackler.

Varsity Season

The 1954 football season brought another championship team and another All-State football player in guard, Dick Bennot. The boys were conference champs. Darnell Sanford was chosen Most Valuable Player, and Bennot was chosen Honorary Captain of the team. The opening victory, which came against Morgan Park, 14-7, was followed by the only defeat, with East Rockford, 7-6.

Then came a string of six well earned victories to close the season with a seven and one record. Argo fell 14-12; Danville was downed in the Homecoming battle 35-0; Bloom lost 7-0 in the one that meant the most to the boys; Blue Island and Leyden were just defeated by identical scores (7-6) on successive weeks, and Fractional failed in the showdown battle for the conference championship, 7-0.

Thorntonites are mighty thankful to the boys who had all the odds against them, but still came through like champions.

Soph Season

Frosh-Soph football under the coaching of Bob Blaha and Ted Czech meant another successful year for Thornton. The outstanding player for the Wildkits was Paul Pendleton, who was a breakaway runner whenever he had the ball. Much of the credit for Pendleton's success goes to linemen Jerry Van Dyck, Ed Bohn, Bill Mason, and Robert Pebworth.

The Kits started out the season by defeating Morgan Park 19-6, and East Rockford 13-0. The conference slate brought a 25-0 shellacking of Argo. A rough Hammond Bishop Noll eleven gave the Kits their first taste of defeat in high school competition, by a score of 33-13. Bloom was the next victim 13-0, but Blue Island gave the Wildkits their first South Suburban Conference loss 32-13. The Sophs ended the year on a cheerful note by downing Leyden and Fractional, 12-0 and 27-7 respectively, to gain a tie for the conference championship, and six and two record for the year. Several boys look as if they will see plenty of action next year on Tiny Huddlestun's Varsity.

JV, Frosh

Thornton's JV football team ended their football season with a record of 1 win, 1 tie, and 2 losses. They edged Rich out by 1 point, 7-6, and then suffered a 7-0 loss at the hands of Evanston. The team went on to tie Bloom 19-19. They suffered their greatest loss from Blue Island, 34-7.

The Frosh squad ended their '54 season with a record of 3 wins, 4 losses. Dropping the first game to Fractional, 33 to 0, they lightened the picture by defeating Argo, 7 to 6. They also won over Blue Island 12 to 7 and E. Kankakee 14-7, while losing to Leyden, 13-27, Bloom, 7 to 20, and Kankakee, 7 to 20.

Trying an end run, Paul Pendleton crosses the 15 yard line in the 33-13 win by Hammond Bishop Noll. It was the first of two losses suffered by the Wildkits, who came up with a 6-2 record.

Thornton's leading scorer Darnell Sanford (24) breaks away from two Danville players. Sanford crossed the goal line three times in the 35-0 homecoming victory.

Coaches Bob Blaha and Ted Czech give instructions to Milton Tucker.

Chuck Truby (60), Thornton's quarterback, reels off a few yards in the battle of rivals against Bloom. Although the game was statistically won by Bloom, Thornton made the score, 7-0, on a Truby-Sanford pass in the second quarter. Jan Zapchenk (28) looks on as he is unable to help his teammate.

Basketball

Basketball spelled success for Thornton, as usual, as the Cats were rated with such powers in the state as Moline, State Champion West Rockford, Elgin, Princeton, and Pinckneyville.

Thornton was lead by two great stars, Russ McKibben and Ed Creach. Russ was on the second All-State team and both were on the All-League five. Jack Foster, another important man, placed on the second team.

The Cats season record was 21 wins and 7 losses. The big victories of the season were Bloom, Lockport, Moline, and three times over Blue Island. The losses came against Bloom, Leyden, Lockport, York, Elgin, the state runnerup, and twice to Rich Township.

Thornton's all-stater, Russ McKibben who set a new Thornton season scoring record at 533 points, dribbled during the 85-42 regional conquest of Bremen.

Driving in for a lay-up is Jack Foster in the regional championship game against Blue Island as the Wildcats won their own title with a 68 to 54 score.

Soph Season

Thornton's sophomore basketball squad ended their season with a total of twelve victories against nine losses in twenty-one starts. The Kits out-scored their opponents by 1129 tallies to 960. Teams defeated by the Kits were York, Blue Island, Lockport, Kankakee, Argo, Elgin, Riverside-Brookfield, and Rich. The Kits were defeated by Thornton Fractional, Leyden, Bloom, La-Grange, Proviso, and Moline. High scorers were Jim Yavenue, 329, and Rich Brown, 234.

Coming down with a defensive rebound, Ed Creach, who was second in Thornton scoring with 467 points, gets ready to defend the ball as Phil Schmidt (44) and Russ McKibben (33) watch the action in the 57-52 victory over Bloom.

Ed Creach, Thornton forward, puts in two of the 19 points he scored against Blue Island in the regional finals, while teammate Russ McKibben hit for 28 points in the last game of the regional.

Regional Tourney

The Regional Tournament was held on the Thornton floor this year. The Cats were untouchable as they romped to their second straight title against the local foes. Thornton's average margin of victory in the Regionals was 27 points per game. Thornton defeated Bremen 85-42, Joliet Catholic 63-40, and Blue Island 68-54, as the Cats moved on to the Hinsdale Sectional. The first opponent, Downers Grove, West Suburban League Champs, fell 90-80 in a hectic battle. But Rich ended Thornton's Sweet Sixteen hopes 72-57.

Rebounding for Thornton is Phil Schmidt during the Moline contest which the Cats squeaked by the Maroons, 55-53. Moline was one of the finest teams in the state with a 30-3 record, losing to Thornton, West Rockford, and Princeton.

Smiling and happy are Thornton's co-captains, Russ McKibben and Jack Foster, as they were presented the Thornton Regional trophy by Dr. Ernest Hanson. The Wildcats won their second straight regional crown as they whipped the Blue Island Cardinals 68-54.

Thornton sophomores, Dave Ring (21) and Dick Brown (25) who sank a game tying basket in the last second, watch an elusive ball during the 65-63 Bloom overtime win.

Driving through the Moline defense for a lay-up is Jim Yavenue. The sophomore scoring ace established a new record with 329 points.

Basketball

Thornton's freshman basketball squad completed their season with a record of seven wins and four losses. In eleven contests the frosh tallied up a total of 634 points to their opponents' 365.

At the start of the season the freshies had a win streak of four games. Then, Bloom entered the picture and meted out a 48 to 41 defeat. The freshmen were handed still another defeat by Bloom in their second game, 32 to 31. High scorers for the freshman squad were Ed Radtke, 120 points; Ken Scott, 110 points; and Guy Ringo with 97.

Thornton's junior varsity basketball team had a 7 and 3 record this season. The jay vees defeated Bloom twice, by scores of 54 to 36 and 53 to 40. Thornton's jay vees scored the highest game of the season against Blue Island, 85 to 24. Marv Smith and Laddie De Vore were high point men during the year.

Dick Brown, Thornton sophomore forward, attempts a jump shot in the 46-40 loss to Moline as Dave Ring (21) moves in for a possible rebound.

Wrestling

Twice in a row! That's what Thornton wrestling fans were saying when the Mat Cats brought home their second wrestling championship trophy in two consecutive years. Those who were instrumental in the victory were Benny Crisler, Chuck Truby, and Don Paarlberg. These were the individual state champs. Bob Godwin and Frank Triumph also added points to the final score.

At the left Bob Wargin is performing a sit-out escape, while Richard Wentzel tries to place Wargin on his back. On the right Bob Godwin is in the midst of a reversal as Bob Hillyer attempts to counter with a step-over.

Thornton's Frosh-Soph wrestling team wound up the '54-'55 mat season with a record of 8 wins and 3 losses. Coached by Jack Robinson, the junior Mat Cats possess an amazing five year record of 47 wins and only 5 losses. This year's squad won over Hirsch by a score of 40 to 11; Tilden by 33-13; Blue Island 42-8; Waukegan 33-32; Hinsdale 39-10; LaGrange 20-18; Joliet 36-11; Leyden 47-5.

They lost to Oak Lawn by a score of 29-21; New Trier, 31-16; Proviso, 23-19.

The varsity squad won not only the state, but two other tourneys and placed in a third.

A first for Thornton, this year, was participation in a Christmas tournament. It was the first of its kind ever held in Illinois for wrestling.

Coaching the Mat Cats was Ted Czech, who has really done a terrific job.

Benny Crisler, state champion, attempts his favorite hold on Don Paarlberg, Thornton's 175 pound wrestler.

Swimming

VARSITY SQUAD

Swimming Season brought another league champion to Thornton, the sixth in succession. The top pointmaker for Frank Froschauer's Mermen was Tom Walker, who won second place in the 100 yard breaststroke event in the state meet. Other outstanding pointmakers were Jim Hoffman, J. K. Sutor, and Chuck Welivar. Mel DeGraff's Frosh-Soph also had a successful campaign with 10 victories and 2 losses.

Two Thornton swimming aces, Tom Clark and Allan Wells, are seen in take-off positions for the breaststroke event.

Baseball

Baseball came in with the spring, and along with it came the usual balmy weather, which meant that early workouts were limited to the batting cage in Buda Gym. Prospects for bettering last year's 7 and 10 record seemed very good with four regulars returning. They were Dick Bennot, shortstop; Butch Pearson, catcher; Benny Crisler, outfield; and Laddie DeVore, outfield. Other starters were Lonnie Austin, Al Petty, Chuck Armstrong, and Ed Shields.

BUNTING TECHNIQUE— Front: Alfonso Medrano, Carl Krause, Don Paarlberg, Elliot Marovich, Laddie DeVore, Dick Bennot, Coach Blaha. Back: Benny Crisler, Ed Shields, Russ McKibben, Ed Creach.

Bob Hansen, Frank Babiarz, running the high hurdles.

Track

Coach Bauman, Bob Godwin, Darnell Sanford, at the starting blocks.

This spring's squad had returning lettermen to provide what appeared to be a better than average season. Each of the lettermen had his own individual specialties in track events. Co-captains this year were Larry Taylor and Dave Wickersham. Returning lettermen were Darnell Sanford, Frank Babiarz, Bob Hansen, Ken Vincent, Bob Godwin, Willie Turner, Paul Edgell, Roy Gonzales, George Harrop, Taylor and Wickersham. Coach Frank Bauman had plenty of other team members earning their letters, too.

Golf, Tennis

Thornton's tennis squad had a moderate season last year. Returning lettermen were Tom Clark, J. K. Sutor, George Skertich, Ted Koralewski, and Bob Hodge.

Thornton's golf squad had a record of eleven wins and four losses in the '54 season. Coach Froschauer had only one returning letterman, Tom Walker, this year. The squad placed second in the league meet and fourth in the district meet.

Intramural Sports

Intramural sports offered a whole year of interesting and varied boys' activities. Thirty-four basketball teams began the competition in the autumn. These teams formed three separate leagues, that provided competition in each grade level. The end of the season on November 15, spotlighted three proud champion teams.

Cold weather brought the individual sports to action. Table tennis, shuffle-board, chess, and checkers, offered entertainment for all.

Volleyball, softball, tennis, horseshoes, and badminton completed a year of fun and enjoyment.

Intramurals couldn't have been a success without help from the managers, who kept the sports on schedule.

Gym Classes

Physical education teachers were aided by gym leaders. These students took attendance and helped instruct classes in many kinds of activities. The girls have their own special class where they learn the sports before helping in the instruction of them.

GAA Board members executed the best extra curricular girls sports program. The Dad-Daughter Play Night, the annual picnic, a play-day for girls of two other schools, and the sports seasons of basketball, badminton, swimming, baseball, modern dance, and volleyball provided a year of the best activities.

A co-ed gym class was held as an experiment, with good results.

Boys in a co-ed gym class found out that dancing with girls wasn't such a bad sport after all. Girls wished that more boys would learn so that they could dance at PX's.

Weightlifting class has a workout with their equipment.

Jack Dye shows Donald Swan and Gerald Johnson how to swing on the parallel bars.

A swim class gets ready for instructions.

Classes Develop Skills

Nice days made archery a favorite sport for girls— Helen Crisler, Ann Marie Jones, Marilyn Crnkovich.

Senior gals enjoyed a program of varied activity. Putting on parties and learning First Aid techniques constituted part of the work in the classroom. The active sports included shuffleboard, archery, volleyball, badminton, table tennis, and golf.

Sophomores and juniors could have their pick of sports, modern dance, or swimming.

THIS IS IT . . . OUR

Personnel

Students and teachers are the most important people at Thornton. We worked with each other and for each other. But the office, cafeteria, and maintenance staffs were indispensable, too.

Dr. Ernest M. Hanson

Dr. Ernest M. Hanson has been superintendent of TTHS since 1953. He came to Thornton from Pueblo, Colorado, where he was head of the city school system. He obtained his bachelor's and master's degree from the University of Minnesota, and his doctor's degree from Colorado State College of Education.

Administrative Officers

Dr. Charles W. Foster is Assistant Superintendent in Charge of Business as well as Business Manager and Secretary of the Board of Education. He received his bachelor's degree from Illinois State Normal University and his master's and doctor's degrees from Northwestern University. Dr. Foster's office employs a secretary and a bookkeeper-cashier, who assist him in the complex practice of modern educational business management in a large high school.

Dr. C. W. Foster

Dr. C. R. Maddox

Dr. Clifford R. Maddox is Assistant Superintendent in Charge of Instruction. He earned his bachelor's degree from Georgetown College, and his master's and doctor's degrees from the University of Chicago. Dr. Maddox's office is in charge of managing all testing programs in the different classes, obtaining substitute teachers, supervising classrooms throughout the building, and directing curriculum at Thornton.

Board of Education. Mr. Henry Vandenberg, Dr. Clarence E. Simon, Mr. Henry Van Der Giessen, Mr. George H. Meyer, Mr. George E. Gilley, Mr. Fred T. Ehlert, Mr. William B. Kane.

Board of Education

Mr. William B. Kane, Mr. George E. Gilley, Dr. C. E. Simon, Mr. Henry Vandenberg, Mr. Henry J. Van Der Giessen, Mr. Fred T. Ehlert, and Mr. George H. Meyer, who composed this year's Board of Education, have a sincere interest in improving the program and in providing the physical facilities that are necessary at Thornton.

The Board has engaged the Office of Field Services of the University of Illinois to make a comprehensive school building survey in order to plan for sufficient facilities for the large increase in enrollment which Thornton will experience during the next ten years. A survey of this type will include an analysis of educational needs, pupil enrollments, finances, school program site needs, junior college, school plant, and a recommended program of plant development based on educational needs and adapted to financial resources.

Counsel

Two men who give much of their time and energies to the problems that come with the office of Counsel are Mr. Burton Evans, and Mr. A. F. Waldschmidt. These men take care of all the legalities and finances that arise with the operation of Thornton.

Mr. Evans, the school attorney, has been at TTHS for sixteen years as legal advisor.

Mr. Waldschmidt has for seventeen years taken care of all financial concerns, such as records for the district, pay roll, and bills.

Mr. Burton W. Evans, lawyer, Mr. A. F. Waldschmidt, school treasurer.

Deans, Principals

Thornton's two deans and four class principals play an important part in the guidance of each student who enters Thornton. The dean of boys supervises the operation of the Boys Club and the activities it sponsors, besides being head of the hall guards, bus guards, and campus patrol. The dean of girls helps girls with the problems they encounter in school and heads the Girls Club in the various social and welfare activities they plan throughout the year. Four class principals schedule the programs for each of the students who enter the school, take care of attendance, handle discipline when it is necessary, and give educational advice.

Front Offices

All school records and program cards are carefully kept on file in the office of the registrar. Absentee sheets, announcements, and the morning mail are also distributed by this staff.

Office 103: Marian Finchum, Dora Harthun, Judy Podulka, Mrs. Evelyn Lindstrom, Ruth Ross (seated).

Office 104: Mrs. Leona Wiener, Rita Walenga, Ruby Leidinger.

Checking attendance and eligibility for athletics are two of the duties of the main office. The switchboard handles the school calls. All visitors for Dr. Ernest M. Hanson are received in the main office also. Problems are brought to either the visiting counselor, or the class principals. The various events are first scheduled here.

Business Office: Mrs. Eileen Steedman, Harriet Burton.

Business Office

Money coming in, money going out—deposits, requisitions—a handy place to cash checks—bookkeeping for all of Thornton's organizations—that is the business office at Thornton.

Buildings and Grounds: Mr. Howard Doster, Superintendent, Mr. Marlon Moore, Secretary.

Part of Thornton's school spirit, comes from pride in clean, attractive buildings. For this service, credit should be given to an excellent maintenance staff, headed by Mr. Howard Doster, building superintendent.

Good food is also appreciated by Thorntonites. Miss Florence E. Waterman and her cafeteria staff provide students and faculty with food for banquets and parties as well as daily luncheons.

Senior Class of 1955

It was a busy year for the seniors, especially in attending sports events. With the opening of school in September, there were exciting football games, and thrill-filled evenings of basketball in the gym. There were wrestling matches and swimming meets. Track meets and baseball games came with spring.

Attendance at dances, variety shows, welfare organizations, and other school functions was great. Treasured memories of the years spent at Thornton were many.

Seniors found themselves asking the question, "What next?" As men and women now looking ahead to tomorrow with eager anticipation, they made plans for jobs, college, the draft, and marriage.

Senior Senate: Row 1: Alice Roney; Sharon Davis, 1st vice president; Colleen Dardis, secretary; Porter Hay, assistant treasurer; Bob Hansen, president; Larry Howell, 2nd vice president; Jeanne Thies, assistant secretary; Joanne Calo, treasurer. Row 2: Lauretha Fields, Gayle Lockwood, Sandra Swanson, Jim Ertle, Harry Frosch, Dennis Malloy, Chuck Duke, Darlene Graefen, Nadine Ehllert. Row 3: Chris Crince, Bob Hogancamp, Alan Jeveret, Guy Reynolds, Thomas Pearson, Bob Moldal, Paul Edgell, Victor Schulze, Gene Robertson.

Senior Class Senate, composed of students elected by senior homerooms, played an important behind-the-scenes role in the big events of the year. There were the Junior-Senior Party and the Prom, gala event of the year, to be planned.

Class officers had the responsibility of transacting the business of the class. Each day the president had the special privilege of raising and lowering the Flag. All the officers acted as chairmen of the Prom committees.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

One of the most exciting events of the year for the seniors was the coming of Honors Day, a time set aside to honor all the students who had served the school well throughout the year. Seniors waited as the hoped-for and dreamed-of scholarship awards were announced.

On Honors Day, both junior and senior members of the National Honor Society were named. To be eligible, a student must have shown outstanding leadership qualities, had a good character, made a high scholastic record, and been of service to the school.

Finally graduation came. The proud junior ushers and guides of the graduation ceremonies took their places amidst the beaming, graduating seniors. Juniors with the top scholastic ratings were selected for graduation ushers. The two highest of the junior class were guides.

GRADUATION USHERS

Mike,

Loads and loads of luck to a "riot" swell guy who made English a riot this year. Hope I have you in some of my classes next year. Always stay the same Mike, and you will go along way. Be good and have loads of fun this summer. See you next year.

Best Always

We're not jokin'; there's NO smokin'.

The dance floor is for dancing—not romancing.

The Purple-X will not link

Its good name with those who drink.

Your coke cups on the floor may be

When containers are filled to capacity.

In the halls, stairs, or between floors don't prance

What's the P.X. for? Come on! Let's dance!

We'll let you know now, so you won't grieve

You can't come back in, after you leave.
